DADS & LADS HURLING - ST.BRIGID'S GAA CLUB, CASTLEKNOCK/BLANCHARDSTOWN, DUBLIN

St.Brigid's Dads & Lads now have six sessions and a challenge match against St.Pats of Palmerstown under their belt. They have grown from strength to strength since they launched this year with an impressive average of 20 participants taking part every Tuesday evening with plenty of laughs along the way.

The group are looking forward to being involved in more organised blitzes and building the social side of their Club. A great start, well done lads!

DADS & LADS TRILICK ST MACARTANS, TYRONE

Trillick St Macartans hosted Brookeborough Heber MacMahons of Fermanagh on June 25th - A very enjoyable experience for all.

CREGGS GAA, ROSCOMMON

The Creggs Dads & Lads team have some of the players who won the 1992 UI6 County Roscommon Championship. All back involved and enjoying the social side of our games.

NAOMH BARROG, DUBLIN

A newly established team started only 5 weeks ago and have 40 members with 25 attending training regularly. Initially Naomh Barrog are focusing on football, and considering hurling over the coming months. A mix of people who have played and others new to the sport, all attending their first local blitz in August. Best of luck to all!

NEWTOWN BEN'S, WICKLOW

Newtown Dads & Lads, aka Newtown Bens, had a busy June!

On June 6th Newtown Bens travelled to Naomh Olaf GAA and on June 28th, they took a short trip to Bray to play Grey Emmets. Both enjoyable games of social football and a warm welcome from both host teams. Huge well done to all involved.

STRADBALLY GAA DADS & LADS, LAOIS

Stradbally D&L's hosted their first match of the season at home to Monasterevin. A great game played in a really good spirit! The Dads & Lads are always looking for more games, and are planning on hosting their end of season blitz again in October!

CRATLOE DADS & LADS, CLARE

Pictured below at the start of their season back in March - well done to all involved.

BLITZ HOSTED BY ST. JUDES, DUBLIN

St. Jude's, Dublin, hosted a blitz in July with incredible numbers. Huge well done to all teams involved!

Participants from - St. Jude's, St Pats Palmerstown, Whitehall Colmcilles, Naomh Olafs, Ashbourne, St. Annes, Cuala, Kilmacud Crokes, Crumlin, Castletroy Gaels, Ballinteer St. John's, Warwickshire

ST. LOMANS, WESTMEATH

The Dads & Lads are up and running in St. Lomans.

Hosting and looking out for games in the Leinster area!

NENAGH ÉIRE ÓG SOCIAL HURLING GROUP, TIPPERARY

The Dads & Lads do a 'Match Report' after every game/blitz that appears on the Clubs weekly social media pages with a photo of the players who participated in the game. A great way to promote Dads & Lads and recruit new members!

LISBURN SOCIAL HURLERS, ANTRIM

The Lisburn Social Hurlers hosted a blitz in Wallace Park in July. The Lisburn social hurlers aim to provide more visibility to Hurling in Lisburn. Players enjoyed the blitz, and there was great support on the day. Great pictures from the day below!
