

Gender-based violence can happen to anyone, but women and girls are most likely to be affected.

Globally

1 in 3

women experiences gender-based violence. (WHO)

Ireland is no exception:

1 in 3

in Ireland have experienced domestic violence.

1 in 4

women have experienced sexual violence with a partner.

Source: Women's Aid, Central Statistics Office

