Creating a Learning Environment

Jeff Lynskey

In Association with

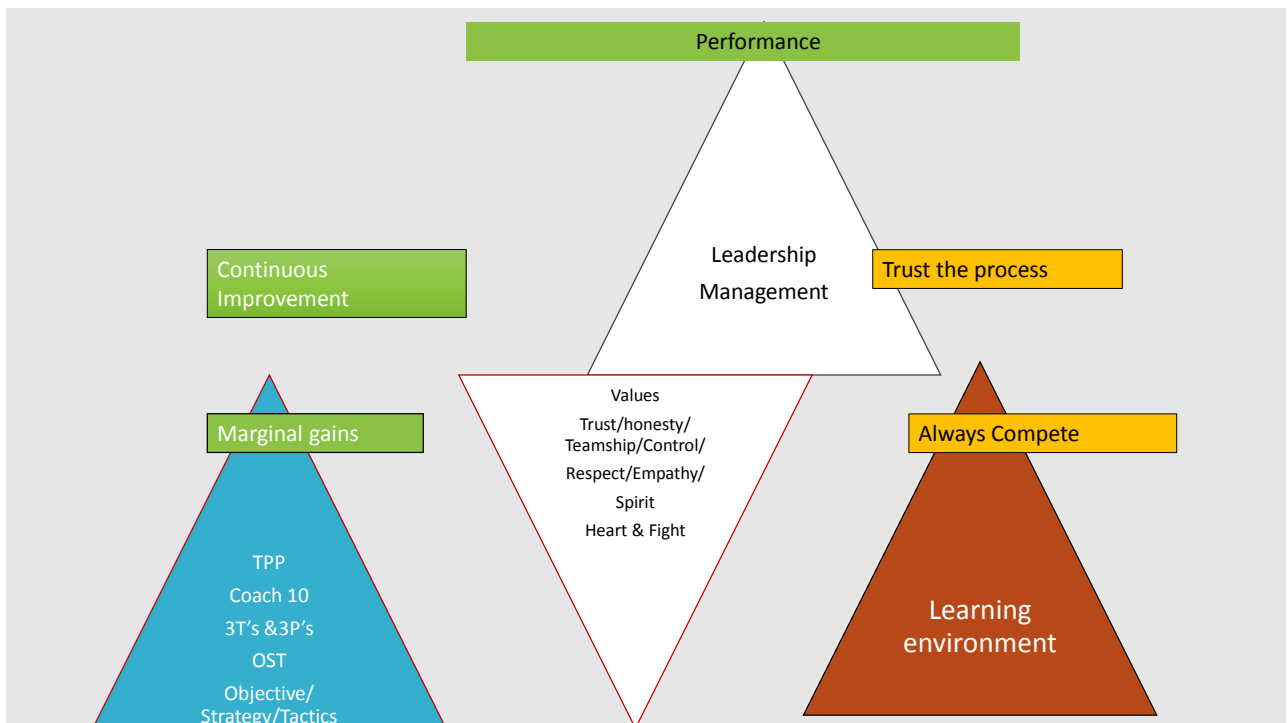

'I think that all environments, whether business or sporting, are about developing people. So if you develop your people, your business is going to be more successful. It's just a matter of creating an environment where that happens every day'

Graham Henry

Michelangelo

- 'If there is some good in me, it is because I was born in the subtle atmosphere of your country of Arezzo. Along with the milk of my nurse I received the knack of handling chisel and hammer, with which I make figures'.
- After his mothers death in 1481 at the age of 6..the artist lived with a stonecutter and his wife in the town of Settignano, where his father owned a marble quarry..and farm.

Framing questions

'By flying in V formation, the whole flock adds at least 71% greater flying range, than if every bird flew on its own. People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going more quickly and easily if they work in harmony and trust one another.'

All Blacks....Improve and Develop

'If you want higher performance begin with a higher purpose'

Kilkenny...Humble..Grounded..

Humility is their anchor..
Charity work!

Rapport...Relationship..

- 'Everything in the world we want to do or get done, we must do with and through people.'

Earl Nightingale

The right environment and conditions enables growth and development...

The Right People..

I have written more than once down the years of the importance of game understanding. Crucial to this are coaching sessions that put players in a problem-solving environment – where questioning is the means of communication, not telling.
