DADS & LADS PRIMARY LOGO

GAA for Dads & Lads is a Social Gaelic Games activity for anyone who enjoys our games and is prepared to lace up some boots and give it a go! It's all about fun and participation with some rules and regulations to keep things fair and square. It's that simple so get involved and have fun!

For clubs, having a social games programme helps them retain members and attract new ones who can enjoy the many benefits associated with playing non-competitive, informal Gaelic games. Participants emphasise the importance of the social aspect of these games – the fun and camaraderie – as well as the health benefits.

The programme identity has been designed to reflect what the programme and social games are all about, fun, participation, health and banter.

The simple but bold device is contained in a solid circle device which makes it easy for use across a wide range of print and social assets. The bold mixed weight font reflects the Dads & Lads target anyone, basically anyone interested in Gaelic games, any size, any ability. The ampersand device is a mix of both codes, football and hurling.
